Assured quality: the key to delivering on the online learning promise.
CHAMBERLAIN UNIVERSITY: PUTTING DESIRE INTO ACTION WITH QM PROGRAM REVIEWS

Chamberlain’s journey to Program Certification began with the institution’s desire to “demonstrate exemplary practices in supporting both teaching and learning” for their RN-BSN Online Option. But it is the value that Chamberlain places on students that really drove their decision to pursue Program Reviews. Leadership felt that the reviews strongly aligned with Chamberlain’s commitment to student success and its focus on personalized attention that they call Chamberlain Care®.

The benefits were clear. First, the process reinforced the need for the continual collection of data and the analysis of that data to determine best practices for online course delivery and support. Second, it provided Chamberlain with the opportunity to recognize their Student Services team, who provide support to their students. Third, and, perhaps, most importantly, the review process allowed their team to see how they impacted the student experience.

The Quality Matters that’s built-in, interconnected, integral. Organizations nurture learners with well-conceived, well-designed, well-presented courses and programs that promise environments in which they can improve and grow. The Quality Matters system is designed to help you deliver on that promise. A system that’s not added on, but integral to the very core of your courses and programs.

For all types of online and blended learning

HIGHER EDUCATION

Colleges and universities can use QM Standards and tools to develop, evaluate, and improve the quality of course design, create a QA culture, and achieve course certification.

Publishers and service providers can use QM Standards to inform course development and differentiate their courses from the competition by having courses QM Certified.

The QM Certification Mark provides a competitive edge — showing students, stakeholders and accreditors that you are committed to quality learning.

K-12

QM empowers teachers, staff, schools, and districts to create and adapt effective online and blended courses that serve the needs of their students and improve learning outcomes.

Virtual schools, publishers and districts with online and blended courses use QM Standards, professional development and tools to ensure quality — differentiating their offerings from the competition.

CONTINUING & PROFESSIONAL EDUCATION

Offering professional training and personal development? QM Standards for CPE are used by associations, corporations, community colleges, K-12 districts, and others to evaluate and enhance the quality of non-credit courses and training.

Official Reviews by QM — which can lead to QM Certification for course design — are the gold standard for independent quality assessment. By certifying that you’ll deliver quality training and courses that meet client, organization and learner expectations, your offerings will stand out, and you’ll receive maximum return on investment.

Since 2006 over 170,000 education professionals have participated in QM Professional Development — improving courses and learning to use quality assurance to improve learner outcomes.
Quality isn’t a destination...it’s a journey. And at Quality Matters, we’re your partners on this journey, at the course level, program level, organization level and as an individual.

Engaging Organizations.
Anywhere on the continuum, quality is a focus for your organization. But the farther along you are on the continuum, the more your organization, and your learners, benefit from the continuous improvement of quality assurance through Quality Matters.

Engaging Individuals.
Not only does QM support the individual in making classes, courses, and programs better, but we work to make you better, too. From serving as a QM Expert within your organization to working with QM in a role such as a reviewer, facilitator or coach, there are many ways to invest in yourself.

QM Activities: Learn, share, connect with the QM community – 110,000+ individuals strong, and over 1,500 member institutions in the US and internationally.
“Study.com was looking for the gold standard in Quality Assurance when we requested QM as the QAE on this [EQUIP] project. QM’s background and experience made the organization the best choice for this project and we are excited and pleased to work with QM.”

ADRIAN RIDNER, CEO AND CO-FOUNDER OF STUDY.COM

“Students we talked with said this gives them confidence that there is truth to what is stated on our website and within our advertising. They thought the quality standard shows that we are exceptional at the services we provide. We’re really proud of the work we do and appreciate the certification we have achieved through Quality Matters.”

STACI DAVIS, EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS FOR BALL STATE’S DIVISION OF ONLINE AND DISTANCE EDUCATION

To deliver your promise of quality online learning, you need everyone to agree on what the expectations are. You need research-supported standards that foster objective feedback on course design. QM Rubrics and Standards were created to help course developers, teachers, faculty, entire organizations, and — most importantly — students. The General Standards and Specific Review Standards in QM Rubrics are intended to guide the development, evaluation, and improvement of your online and blended courses. Meeting these quality-expectations through a robust review process is key to certifying the quality of your courses and programs.

QM Reviews benefit all stakeholders, from learners to parents to faculty and staff to governments and accrediting agencies. QM Official Reviews provide data and feedback that members use in a variety of ways — focus for improvement, benchmarking, certification of quality.

The array of review types and tools available to QM Members aids the process of collaboration between course designers and faculty — culminating in improved courses for learners. QM Official Review teams are composed of individuals trained and certified to serve on review teams — a professional milestone to many.
